Dickinson Autocon Systems Named Official Dealer in Australia

WOODRIDGE, Ill.—January 15, 2007—Systech announced today that Dickinson Autocon Systems of Silverwater, NSW, Australia is now the official dealer for Integra® products in Australia. This continues a string of innovative growth strategies by Systech in servicing its rapidly expanding customer base.

“Dickinson Autocon Systems have been manufacturing their own batch panel for the Australian market for a number of years, so their initial focus will be on distributing our Integra Dispatch and other Integra software modules,” said John Rabchuk, president of Systech, Inc.

Several members of Dickinson Autocon will be attending Systech University in the spring to become fully versed in Systech technologies.

“We are thrilled to be the exclusive provider of Systech’s Integra products in Australia, and the first international dealer,” said Alan Reece, managing director of Dickinson Autocon. “Offering Integra is the natural extension for us and allows us to deliver the finest products to our customers.”
